

---

Bridge Petroleum Limited
Anti – Slavery Policy
(Modern Slavery Act Statement)

Bridge Petroleum Limited (“Bridge”) will explore, develop and supply energy in a safe and responsible manner, maximizing economic recovery for stakeholders, and be a trusted partner within the industry.

Bridge is fundamentally opposed to all slavery and human trafficking. This document sets out Bridge's guiding principles with respect to the achievement of its Anti-Slavery Policy objectives. This Policy applies to all Bridge's employees, directors, officers, consultants, contractors and its supply chain, and is based on confidentiality, transparency, honesty and integrity.

---

Commitment

The Board of Directors has ultimate accountability for this policy and its effectiveness.

Bridge is committed to:

- complying with all relevant anti-slavery legislation, including the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015;
- ensuring an understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in its business activities and supply chain;
- providing training to its staff where appropriate;
- ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in any part of its business or supply chain.

Objectives

To ensure Bridge's Anti-Slavery Policy is effective through delivery of the following objectives:

- zero tolerance of slavery and human trafficking;
- ensuring all suppliers comply with this policy via specific contractual or policy commitments covering slavery and human trafficking;
- monitor potential risk areas in the supply chain;
- comply with all relevant UK and international legal and regulatory requirements;
- provide relevant Anti-Slavery employee awareness training.

Accountability and Implementation

Accountability for compliance with this policy lies with the Board of Directors. Individuals are required to work and act in accordance with this policy at all times. Everyone must endeavour to make themselves aware of the potential consequences and risks associated with the non-compliance of this policy.

Implementation of this policy will be via the company's Business Management System and subject to periodic audits/reviews to verify compliance and promote a culture of continuous improvement.

Dr Fazrie Wahid
Executive Director
June 2023